

The Presbyterian Church of Upper Montclair invites you to hear

Bonnie St. John

Author of

“Live Your Joy”

You saw her on the Today Show, now come meet her in person!

Sunday, September 20

5:00 PM – 6:30 PM

How does she do it?

An amputee, an abused child and now a single mom.....yet Bonnie accomplishes much more than most. She was the first African-American woman to win medals in the Winter Paralympics as a ski racer, graduated from Harvard with honors, was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford and worked in the White House during the Clinton years.

How can we learn to live our joy?

Admission is free. Books available for purchase.

The Presbyterian Church of Upper Montclair is located at 53 Norwood Avenue (at the corner of Inwood Avenue). For more information call 973-746-3854.
